

Bring Women Back to Work (BWBW) Alumni PRO Agreement

Program Costs and Alumni Contribution

The alumni program participant in the continued community engagement will contribute an annual alumni program membership contribution of 199.00 CHF to support ongoing activities and resources.

Annual Alumni Program Membership Invoice

An annual invoice will cover the annual alumni program membership contribution of 99.- CHF for the Bring Women Back to Work (BWBW) community.

As a valued member of the BWBW alumni network, your contribution directly supports the ongoing growth and development of this unique platform, enabling us to:

- Full Community Access: Connection to the global BWBW Alumni Network
- Continuous Learning: Unlimited access to all current and upcoming workshops
- Expert Guidance: Monthly founder coaching sessions with Vanessa Gentile
- Talvia Platform Access: Exclusive entry to our AI-powered talent matching system
- Tech Partner Perks: Direct, exclusive access to resources from Salesforce, AWS, Workday and more
- Member Discounts: 10% off all BWBW Bookstore purchases, Merchandising Shop and event tickets depending on availability

Your alumni program membership ensures the continued success of this vibrant community and reinforces our shared commitment to driving positive change in the workplace.

Alumni Program Membership Duration and Renewal

This agreement is valid for a period of one year from the date of signing. It does not automatically renew for subsequent one-year terms. Participants who wish to continue their membership must renew separately by signing a new agreement and completing the payment for the following year via the homepage.

Termination of Alumni Program Membership

BWBW reserves the right to suspend or terminate the alumni program membership for cause with immediate effect in cases of:

- Repeated failure to meet participation requirements without valid justification
- Non-payment of the annual alumni program contribution
- Conduct that negatively impacts the BWBW community, its good reputation or its values

Privacy Notice: Please take note of our Privacy Notice published on our website at Private Notice | BWBW Homepage. We base our processing of your personal data during your participation in the program on our contractual agreement, and after completion of the program on your consent, which you can always revoke for the future at any time.

Final Note

By signing this agreement, the alumni acknowledge their role in supporting the continued growth of BWBW and its mission to empower more women in the tech industry - not only by paying the annual alumni program contribution, but also by actively participating in the community. This alumni partnership not only contributes to individual growth but also strengthens the broader BWBW network.
